

Characteristics Of Little Feat Montessori House Of Children

Child centered environment – a second home.

Trained and highly experienced professionals as staff and on advisory panel.

Self-correcting, scientifically designed, specialized Montessori material accessible to each child individually.

Focus on individual learning.

Building of self-esteem, confidence and independence in thought and action.

Low student-adult ratio for ensuring individual attention.

Easy accessibility to adults-in-charge for discussing your child's welfare.

Regular meetings and parent workshops.

Member of International Montessori Council – USA.